Band goes to Phoenix, Arizona for parade

Last June, the band represented the State of Alabama in the National Jaycee Convention's Parade for the second consecutive year. While traveling to Phoenix, Arizona, for the parade, the group toured Vicksburg National Military Cemetery, Carlsbad Caverns and the Grand Canyon. In August they performed at the N. Y. Jets-Atlanta Falcon Exhibition game. In the fall, this outstanding organization participated in the Mid-South Marching Festival in Gadsden. There the band received a Superior rating for its performance, and Drum Major Bill Friel, also received a Superior rating for his field direction. This year the band took on a new look with the addition of a separate drum corps and guidons. The playing members sported new hats and the small units wore new uniforms. Under the direction of Sid Garwood the band acquired a look and sound of its own.

As One Dynasty Ends . .

COACH HAROLD "RED" LUTZ

. . Another Begins.

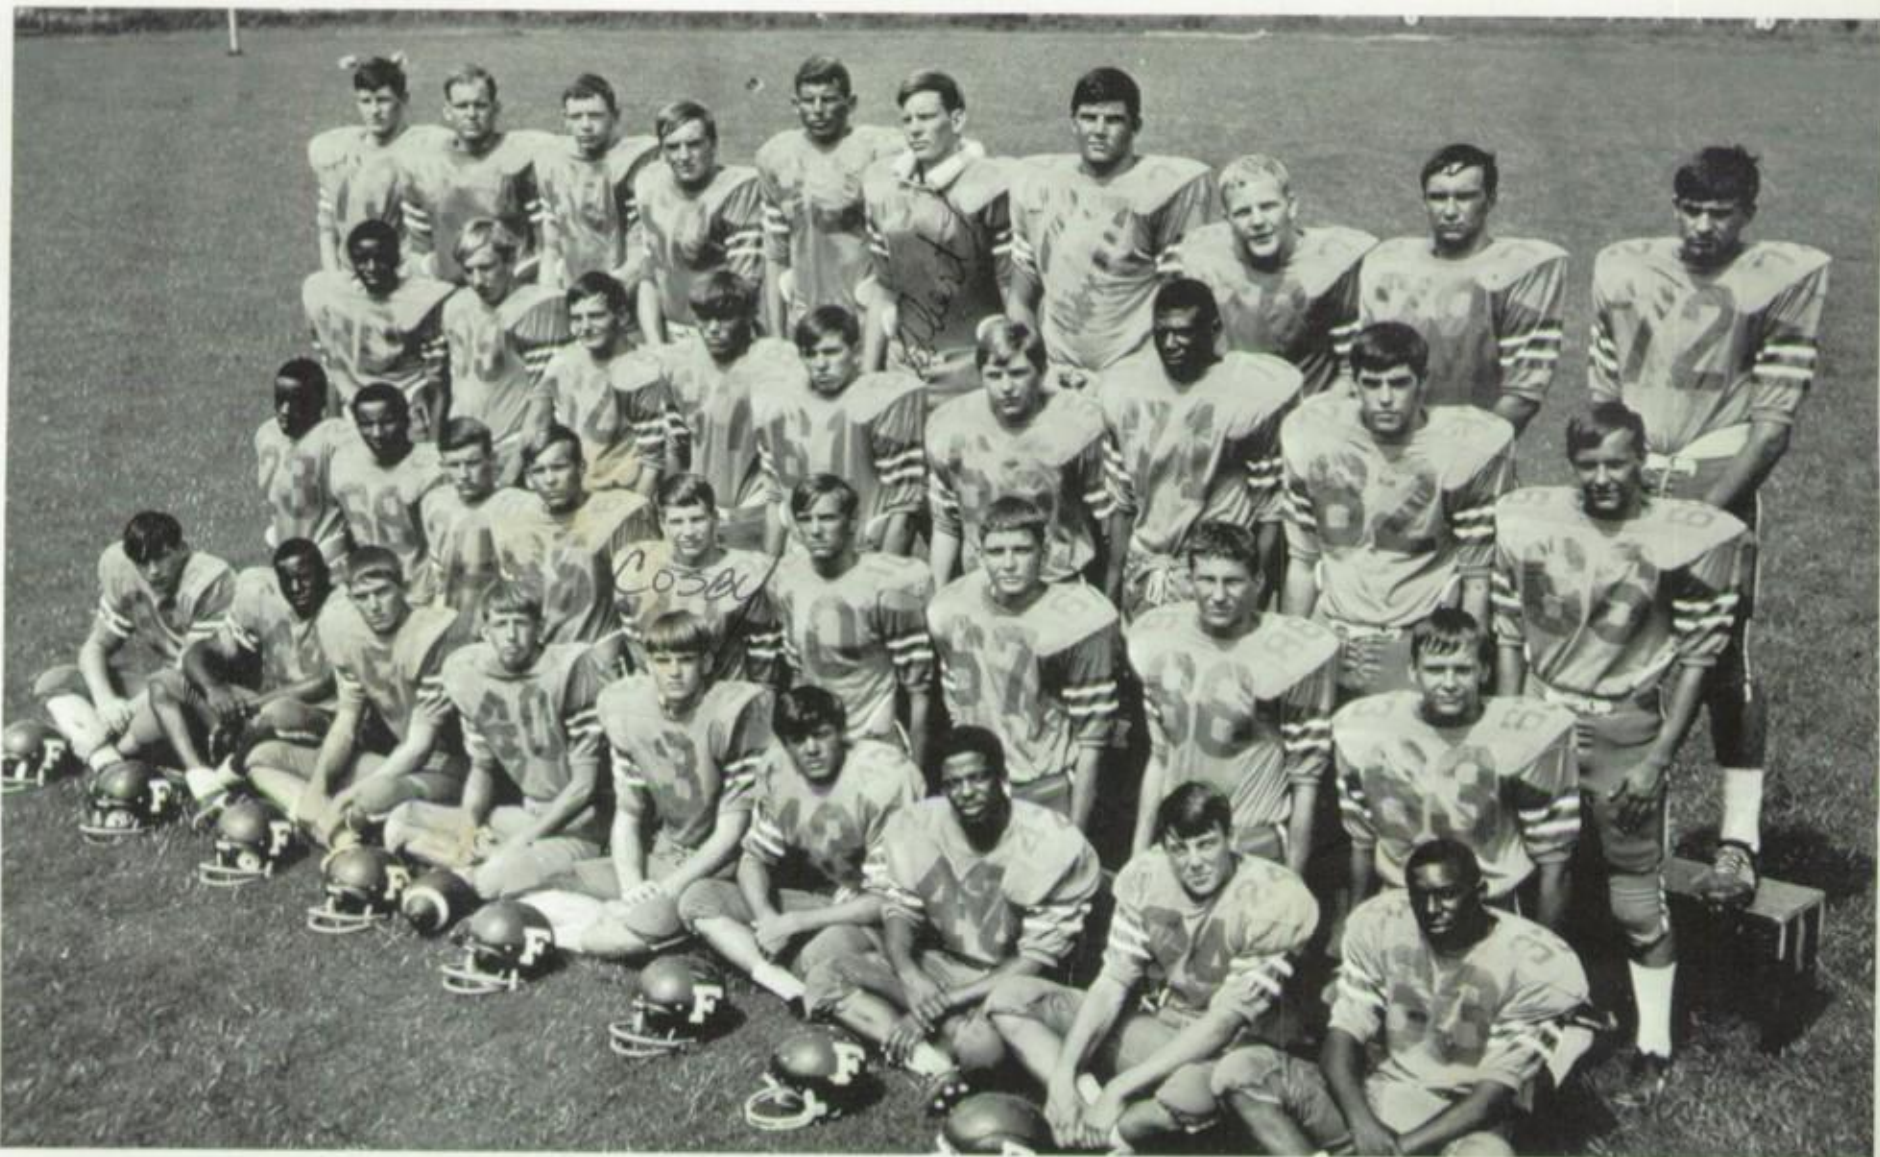

The year of 1969 saw the departure of one of the truly great coaches in Fairfield history, Harold "Red" Lutz. His move to a larger school was understood by all, though it was truly a loss to our school; not only for his contribution to athletics, but also for his academic help. This year also brought about the beginning of a new dynasty; that of new Head Coach Jim Fuller. His shown leadership will truly lead him to success.

COACH JIM FULLER

Fairfield Tigers

Tradition is defined as "a Belief or practice which is inherited from past generations." The Fairfield Tigers of 1968 have established a tradition which was begun in 1967 as the team copped the Jefferson County Independent Championship. The '68 edition of the Tigers were not satisfied with a mere county championship. They made up their minds in early summer to accomplish something never before reached in the history of Fairfield football - an undefeated season and a berth in the State Playoffs. Through pride, strength, dedication and confidence in themselves, they attained both of these seemingly impossible goals. Inspired by a superb coaching staff and an enthusiastic student body, the Tigers crushed all who stood in the way of the goal of their dreams. It was a truly memorable year for all connected with it.

Go Unbeaten!!

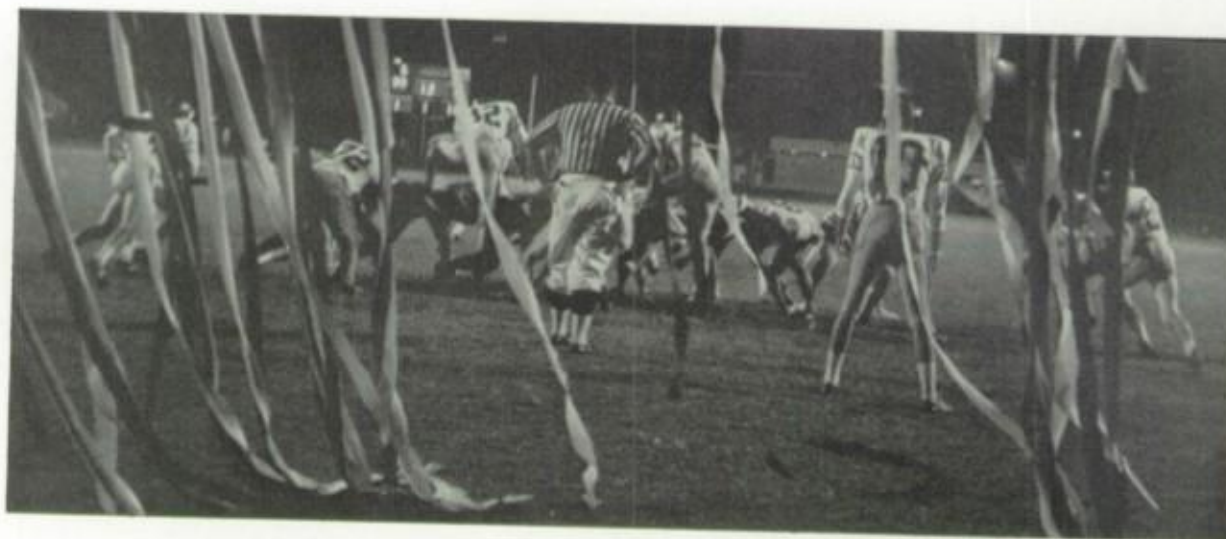

The season opener for F. H. S. found the Tigers showing both a powerful offense and an unyielding defense in downing Pell City 47-14.

Fairfield travelled to John Carrol and routed the Cavaliers to the tune of 32-6 for their second victory.

Tigers Take Tough Ones.

The McAdory Yellow Jackets invaded Tiger Territory and were trounced by the Tiger offense and defense to the tune of 39-0.

Jones Valley provided the strongest opposition to the Tiger Victory Machine but were beaten 19-14. Down 14-12 at halftime, the Tigers added another touchdown in the third quarter while holding the Brownies scoreless for the win.

James Owens on the Move

F.H.S. Takes Homecoming!

One of the many highlights of the Fairfield High School year is the activities of Homecoming Week. This is the one week of football season in which the entire student body prepares itself along with the team for the game on Friday night. All the float making, voting for the queen, and bonfire-burning leads up to that climactic moment when the Tigers take the field to do battle. This year it was a fitting finale to a great week as the undefeated Tigers demolished Hueytown 26-0. The passing combination of Nipper to Stewert or Thrasher combined with the powerful running of Owens and Owen completely baffled the Gopher defenders as the Tigers rolled up another convincing win.

Tigers Prepare For the Big Night

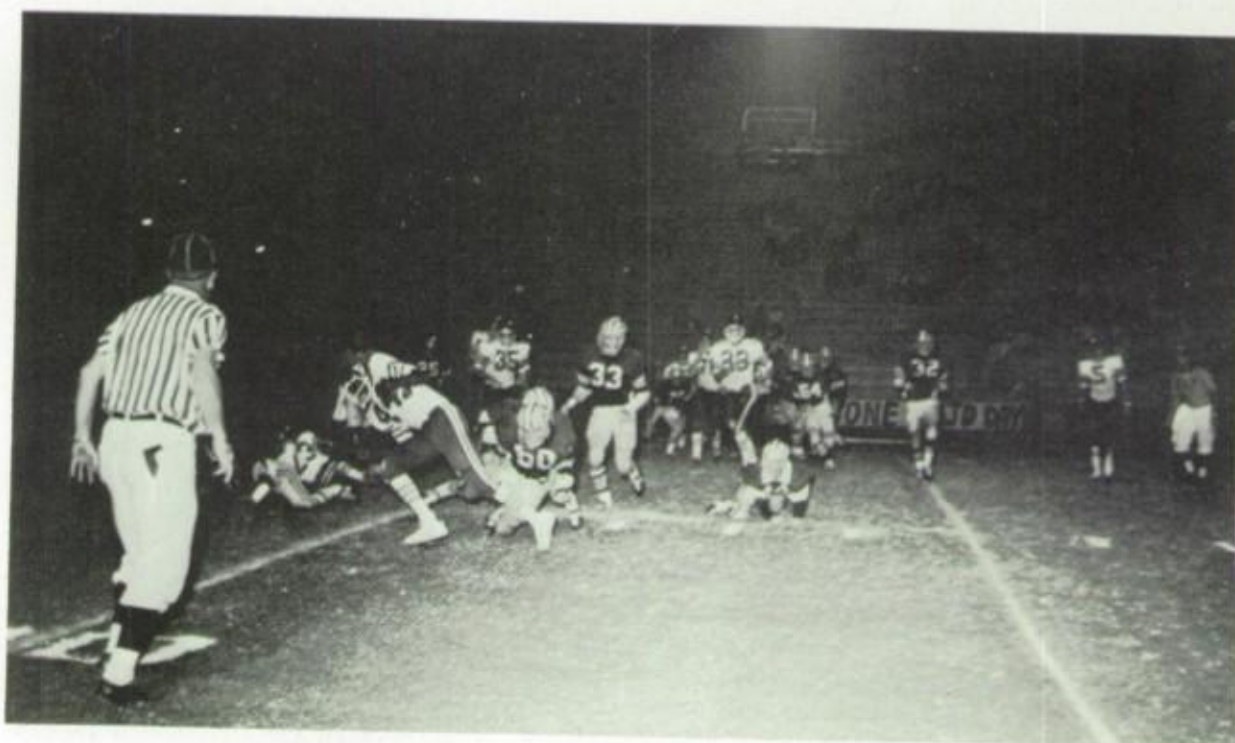

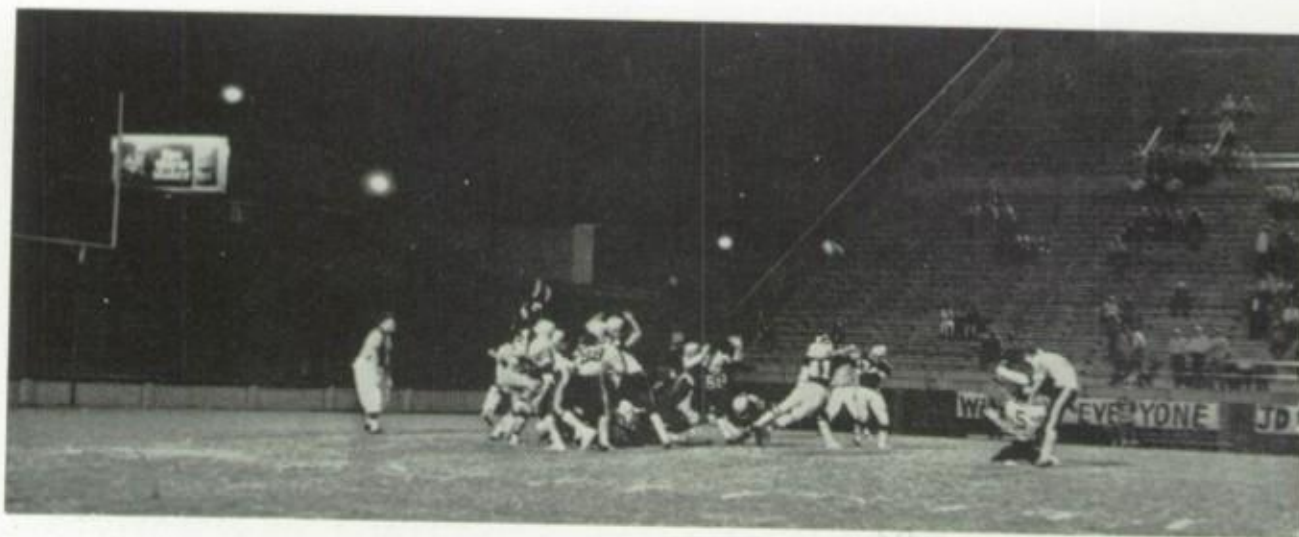

The Captains

Tigers Go

The long trip to Montgomery was quite worthwhile as the Tiger attack, led by Nipper, Owens, and Company routed a new Jefferson Davis team 41-12.

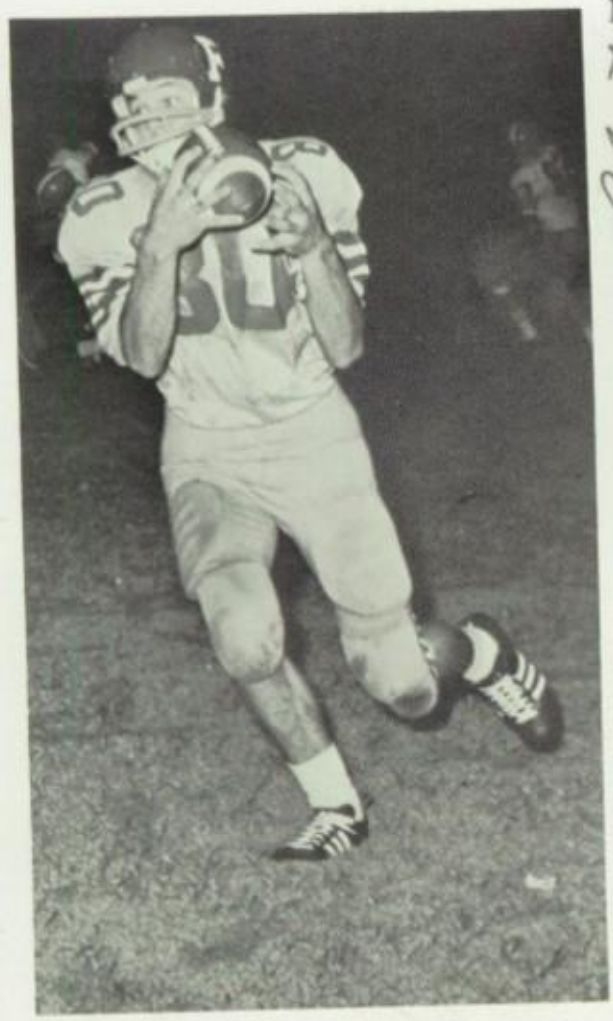

Weary Tigers Take A Break.

The Tigers finally got in the winning spirit after two quarters of sluggish play and edged the Bessemer Tigers 20-13. The Defense, led by Caldwell, Garrett and Ellison, stymied the Purple Tigers in the second half to nail down the win.

All the Way!

After defeating Tarrant and Tuscaloosa thus establishing the first undefeated and untied season in the history of Fairfield High School, the Tigers were ranked third in the State 3A rankings and were chosen to participate in the State Play-offs. They were paired with Saks High in Anniston and met the Wild-cats on their home field. The Tigers met their match and were defeated, 31-0.

The Fairfield High School Basketball Team, coming off a victorious season last year, along with a second-place rating in the Alabama High School 3A Tournament, have set an even faster pace for the 1969 season. With three starters back from last year's quintet, the Tigers have used a superb blend of speed, poise, and deadly shooting to down foe after foe. Nipper, Dunn, White, Owens, and Ellis compose the starting five with Gant and D. Ellis leading the reserve corps. Coach Tommy McGehee is the head coach.

Honors

Students of

The Exchange Club of Fairfield has an extraordinary program for the recognition of seniors: a student who has shown high scholastic averages and qualities of leadership is chosen as a Student of the Month. Needless to say, this is a high honor in itself, but combined with the luncheon at the Fairfield City Hall and a plaque which the student keeps as a memento, this special recognition is also an excellent way to encourage responsible future leaders of Fairfield and the nation.

Salesmanship

A little-known fact is that the Crucible is financed entirely by the sale of magazines by seniors. Although many seniors did exceedingly well (the total goal was surpassed by over six hundred dollars), a few seniors outdid themselves by selling over their individual quotas. These people are the Super Salesmen of FHS.

Who's Who

Ronnie Albright

Representing Fairfield High School on the annual Jefferson County Citizenship Tour this year was Ronnie Albright. He is a two year letterman in both football and track, a member of the National Beta Club, Student Council, Science Club, and Sports Editor of the Crucible. Ronnie was chosen to participate in the "Know Your News" television show, and was voted "Most Talented Boy" and honored as the February Student of the Month by the Exchange Club. For the past two years, his acting ability has been manifested in his leading roles in high school plays. He plans to attend the University of Alabama and study Pre-Law.

Deborah Benson

The campus of Auburn University will have the addition of at least one more beautiful girl when the fall semester begins. Deborah Benson our own Miss Fairfield, plans to enter the college of Arts and Sciences and major in geology. Throughout her high school career at Fairfield, Deborah has proven time and again that she is truly an outstanding student. As head majorette and as choreographer for the annual musicals she has shown her ingenuity. By her many honors such as Miss Bessemer Alternate, Jr. Miss semifinalist, Sophomore Beauty, and of course Miss Fairfield, Deb has kept constantly in the news. A member of the Student Council, Inter-Club Council, and Hi-Life, she has proven her capabilities.

Don Campbell

For two years, FHS has staged a musical play, and for two years Don has captured a leading role in that play. A member of the tremendous male chorus, he was elected secretary and Student Director. After school, he is also drummer for the "Kombination." During school hours Don is highly involved with perfecting the drum corps of the FHS Band. President of the band, he also sits in on drums for "Sid's Soul Sound," the swing band. For outstanding grades and high character, Don was tapped into the Beta Club his junior year and was elected vice-president his senior year. Because of scholastic achievement, he was presented the Harvard Book Award. And like all members of the Student Council, he looks forward to the "picnic." Don plans to attend Samford University in the fall where he will major in law.

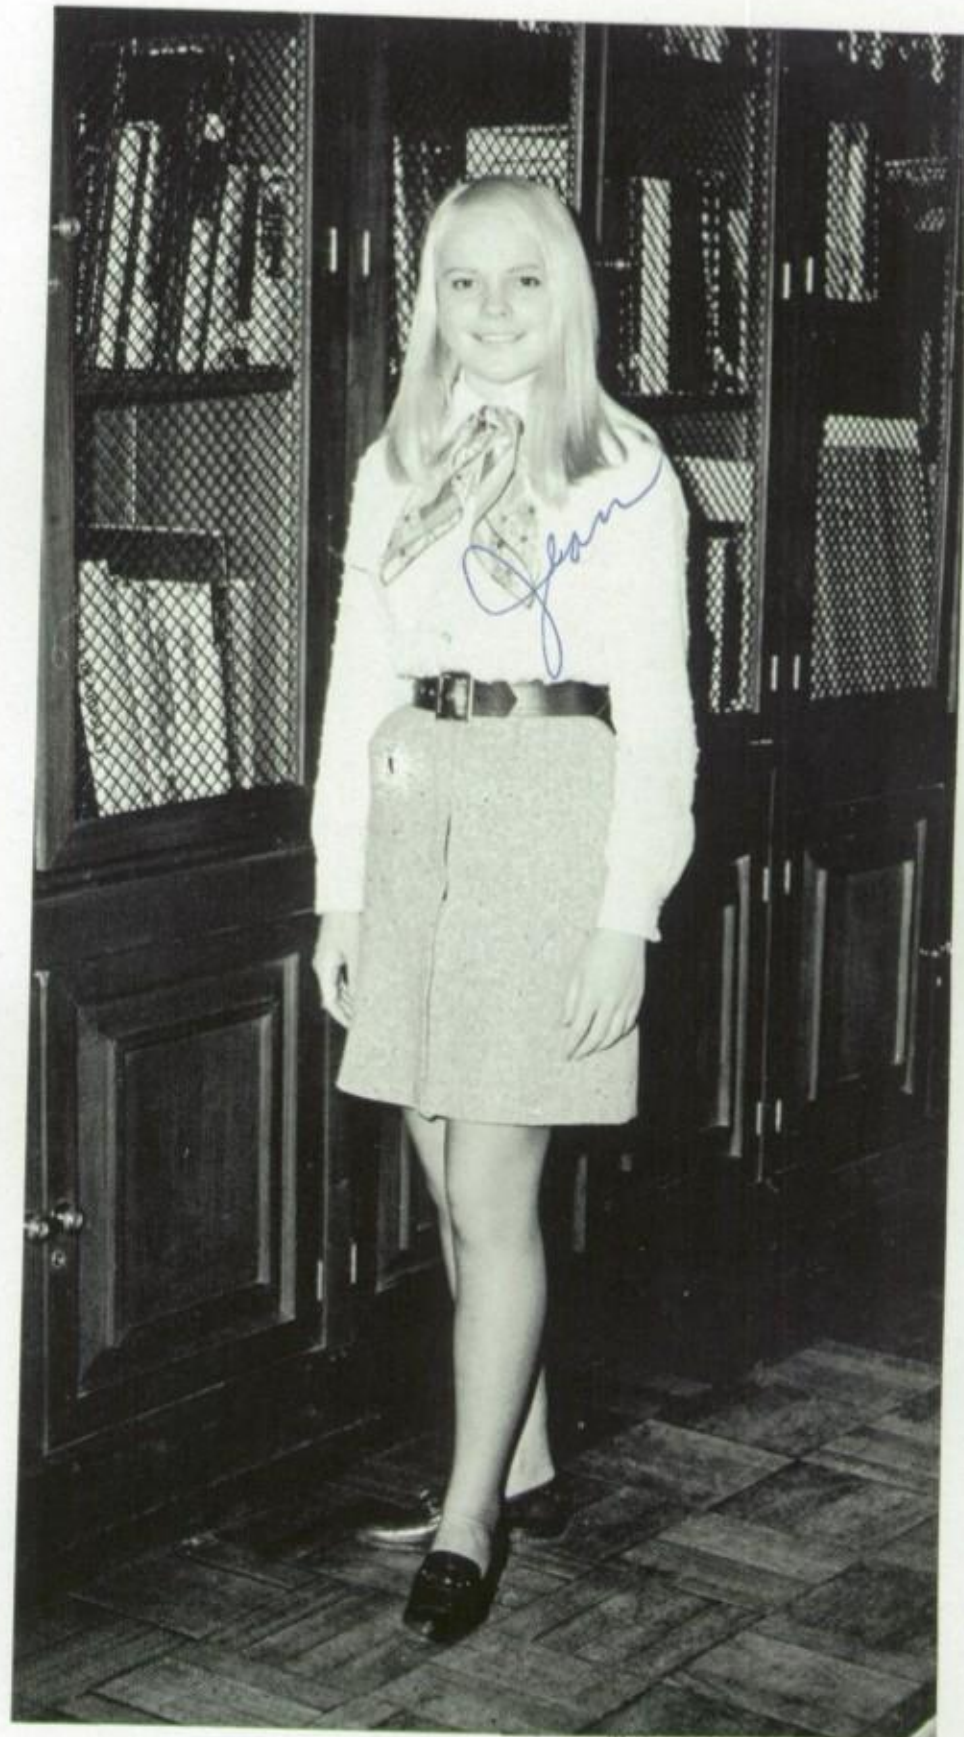

Kenneth Caldwell

Active in all phases of FHS campus life, Kenneth Caldwell has served as treasurer of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. This year he helped lead the Fairfield Tigers to the State 3A Play-offs, and won an honorable mention in the 3A All-State. At FHS, an honor cherished by all seniors is the Student of the Month Award which Kenneth was presented for the month of May. A member of the Key Club for the past three years, and now president, Kenneth shows his dedication to Christian service ideals. In September, the world of the University will open its doors to a future leader, Kenneth Caldwell.

Buzzy Ellis

Perseverance and resourcefulness achieved the High Salesmanship Award and Liberty Bell Award for Buzzy Ellis. Subscriptions in excess of three hundred dollars from Buzzy alone assured a top-notch Crucible. His skills do not end with sales for he is quite adept in sports. Lettering three years in baseball and basketball, and one year in track makes his F-Club membership inevitable. An outgoing personality attracts faculty as well as students; this has been shown by assisting various faculty members in the fields of Biology, Physical Education, and Art.

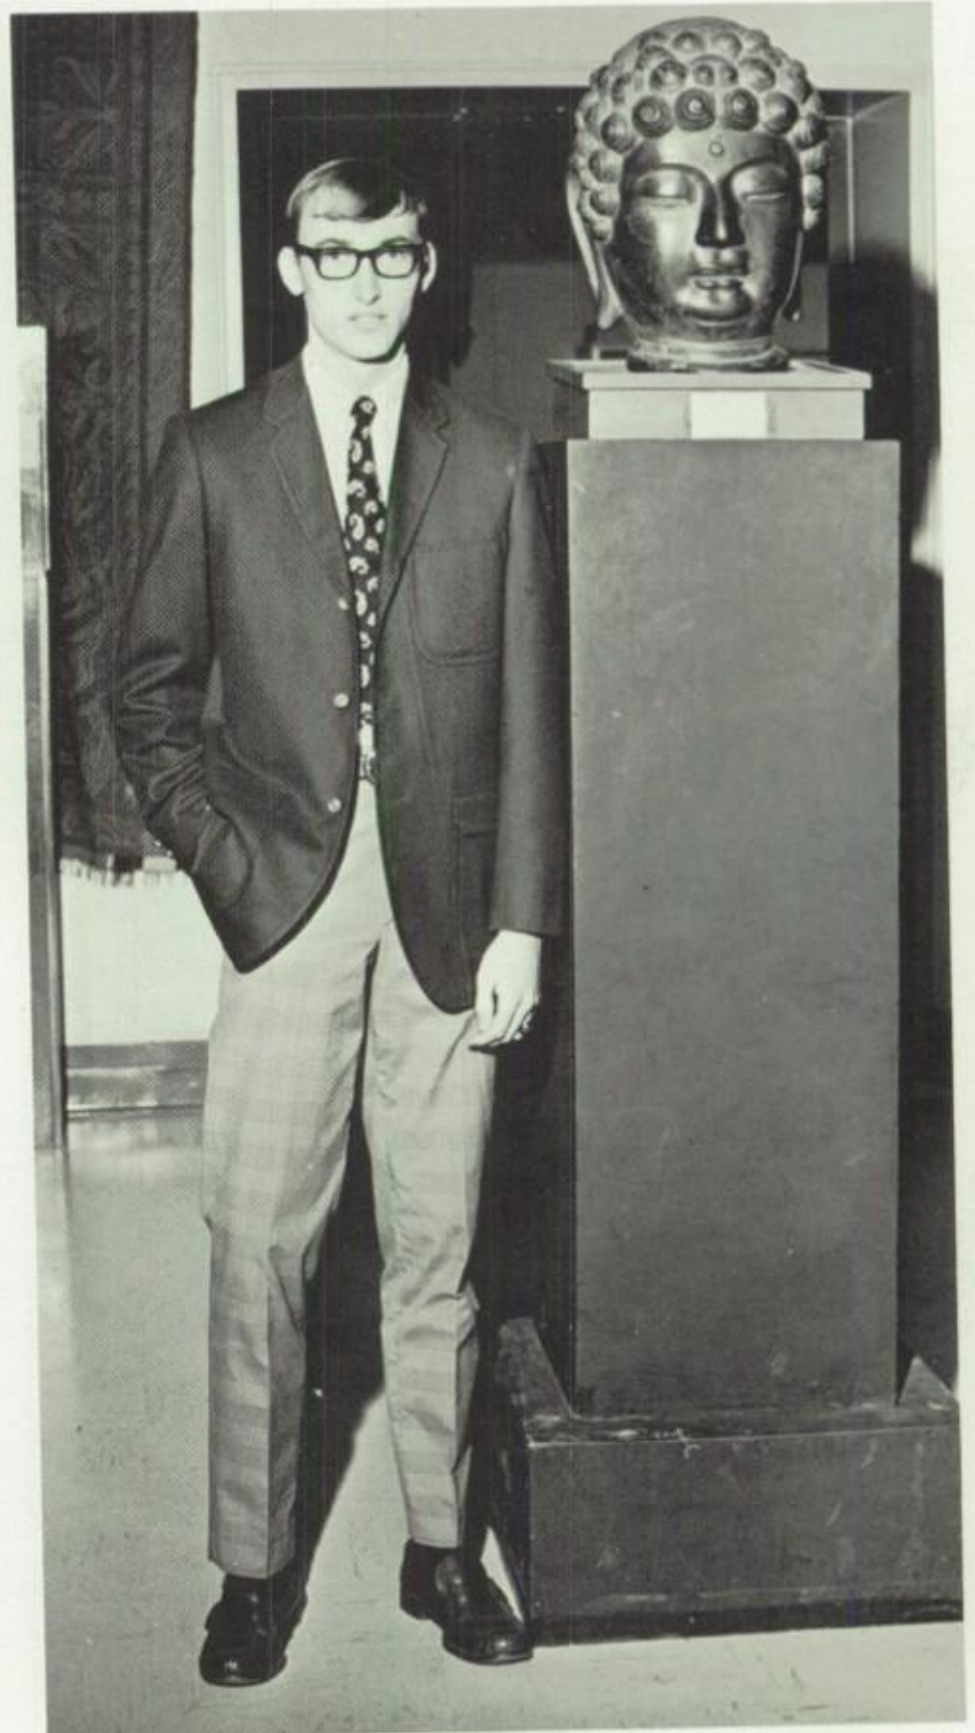

Jean Epperson

A girl with both beauty and intelligence, Jean Epperson belongs to the Beta Club and was chosen as an alternate in the Miss Fairfield Contest. She also belongs to the Science Club, Y-Teens and Drama Club. Her scholastic efforts were rewarded when she was chosen to represent Fairfield at Girl's State in Huntingdon. An excellent experiment in democracy, Girl's State is a high honor for any senior girl. Jean plans to attend the University next year and consider teaching as a possible career.

Bill Friel

Out in front of the Fairfield High School Tiger Band this year was Drum Major Bill Friel. He is student director of the Mixed Chorus and has been active in the Choral Department throughout his high school career. Bill was one of Fairfield's Boy's State representatives last summer and is President of the Beta Club and Youth for Christ Club. He is a two year letterman in track, a member of the Student Council, and Organization Editor of the Crucible. Bill was selected Exchange Club student of the month for December, and played a leading role in the School's musical, "My Fair Lady." This summer he will be enrolled in the School of Business Administration at Auburn University.

Clarke Eyl

In Clarke's four years of high school, he has attended three different schools. His freshman year was spent at Jefferson Davis High School in Jacksonville, Florida where he was vice-president of his class and a member of both the mixed and the male chorus. During his sophomore and junior year at John F. Kennedy High in New Orleans, he was a member of the debating team and Youth for Christ. As a senior, Clarke now attends FHS and is a member of the Pep Club and others. One of his highest honors was that of Optimist Club Semi-finalist. His future plans include the University of Alabama at Birmingham where he plans to major in music.

Carolyn Garzarek

Elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body, Carolyn Garzarek has been an active participant in the Student Council for two years. Her experiences in student government occasioned an invitation to attend the annual Citizenship Convention in Montgomery. Carolyn's popularity is emphasized by her selection as a finalist in the Miss Valentine Contest, and as "Friendliest" in the Senior Favorites. The striking beauty of Carolyn has been noted by her classmates and the judges in three Crucible beauty shows, where she was chosen as Junior Class Beauty. Carolyn's cheerful willingness has led the way to many opportunities for service, both in school and out. She has served as President to Y-Teens, Vice-President of the Club, and a member of the Beta Club and the Crucible staff. Fall will find Carolyn at the University of Alabama at Birmingham majoring in English.

Diane Guercio

Diane is not only a member of the Red Cross, Future Teachers, Pep Club, and others, but also managed to head the March of Dimes Campaign at FHS this spring. An office assistant and high magazine salesman, she plans to attend Jacksonville State University with a possible secretarial course.

Jane Key

No other person deserves the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award more than Jane Key. At the University of Alabama, Jane plans to major in Home Economics. Preparing for her career in Home Ec, Jane is a member of the Future Teachers and Candy Strippers Club which shows her interest in teaching and humanity. Yet her interest does not stop with her future career. Her varied interests include service to the school and the community through membership in the Pep Club, Library Assistant, and Y-Teens. A musical interest has been developed by her dedication to the Fairfield Tiger Band.

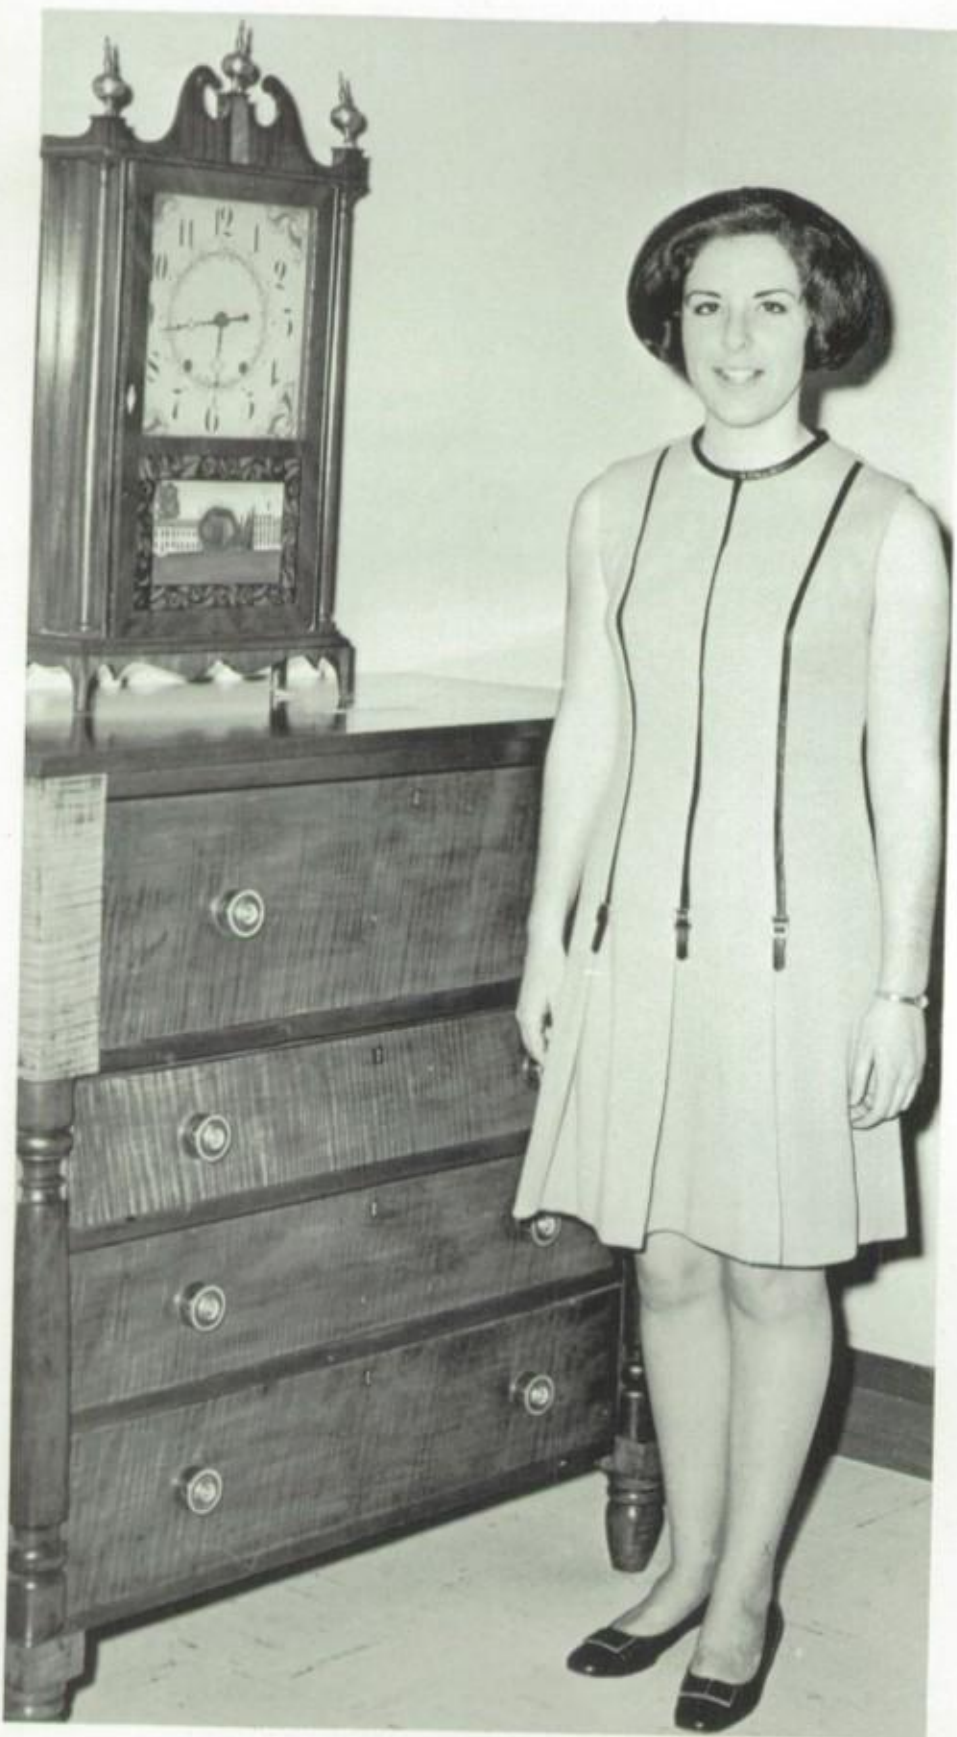

Barbara Hand

Vivacious Barbara Hand sparks school spirit through her journalistic talent as editor of the Hi-Life. This enthusiasm is furthered through her service as Pep Club member and officer. Her genuine interest in school betterment has placed Barbara in positions of leadership as Student Council Representative, Bank Board of Directors, Inter-Club Council, and Student of the Month. This winning combination of service and spirit makes Barbara a deserving member of the Senior Who's Who.

Janice Osborn

Biology and Auburn will claim presedence in Janice Osborn's immediate future. Presently, however, she is very much involved in FHS. An event climaxing her high school life was her selection as DAR Good Citizenship Girl. With this honor goes all the responsibility of quality citizenship. Among her industrious pastimes are Fairfield Tiger Band, in which she is an excellent clarinet player and band assistant; Bank Board of Director's President, and a devoted member of the Beta Club. All in all, her compatible ways sum up her title - Most Courteous.

Gloria Otwell

Confidence in her fellowman secured for Gloria the Optimist Club Semifinalist position from FHS. By looking on the bright side of life, Gloria has gained many friends and joined many clubs. She has been a member of the Y-Teens, Science Club, Pep Club, Future Teachers, French Club, and Beta Club. Her capacity of mind credits her being chosen Most Intellectual.

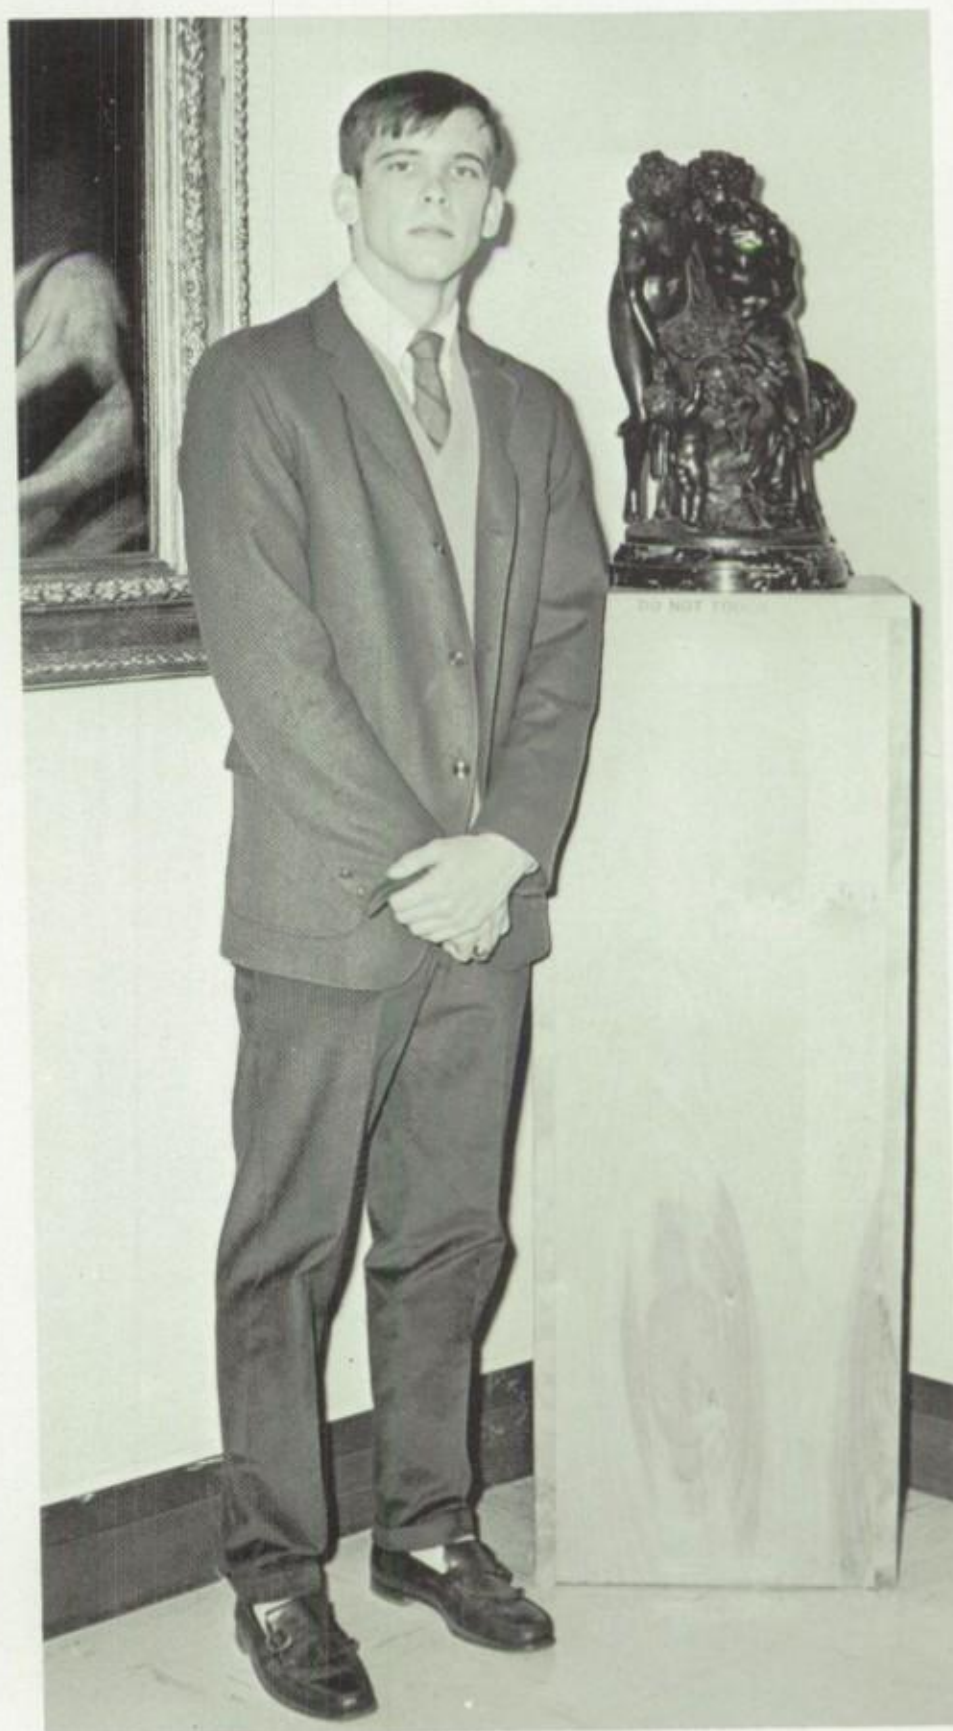

Nancy Perry

While maintaining an enviable scholastic record, Nancy Perry has put forth an equal effort in extracurricular activities. Nancy's outstanding leadership abilities are made manifest in the honors of being Crucible Editor, Beta Club member, and Student of the Month. Her dedication to FHS has been indicated by her selling of magazines to sponsor the Crucible budget. Her dedication to society has been indicated by her ideas expressed as third place winner in the Voice of Democracy contest. This dedication is furthered by her active participation as Secretary and Treasurer of the Youth for Christ. All of Nancy's efforts have been rewarded by her selection as Most Likely to Succeed out of the Senior Class. The Future tends to lean toward the University and a possible Math or Chemistry major.

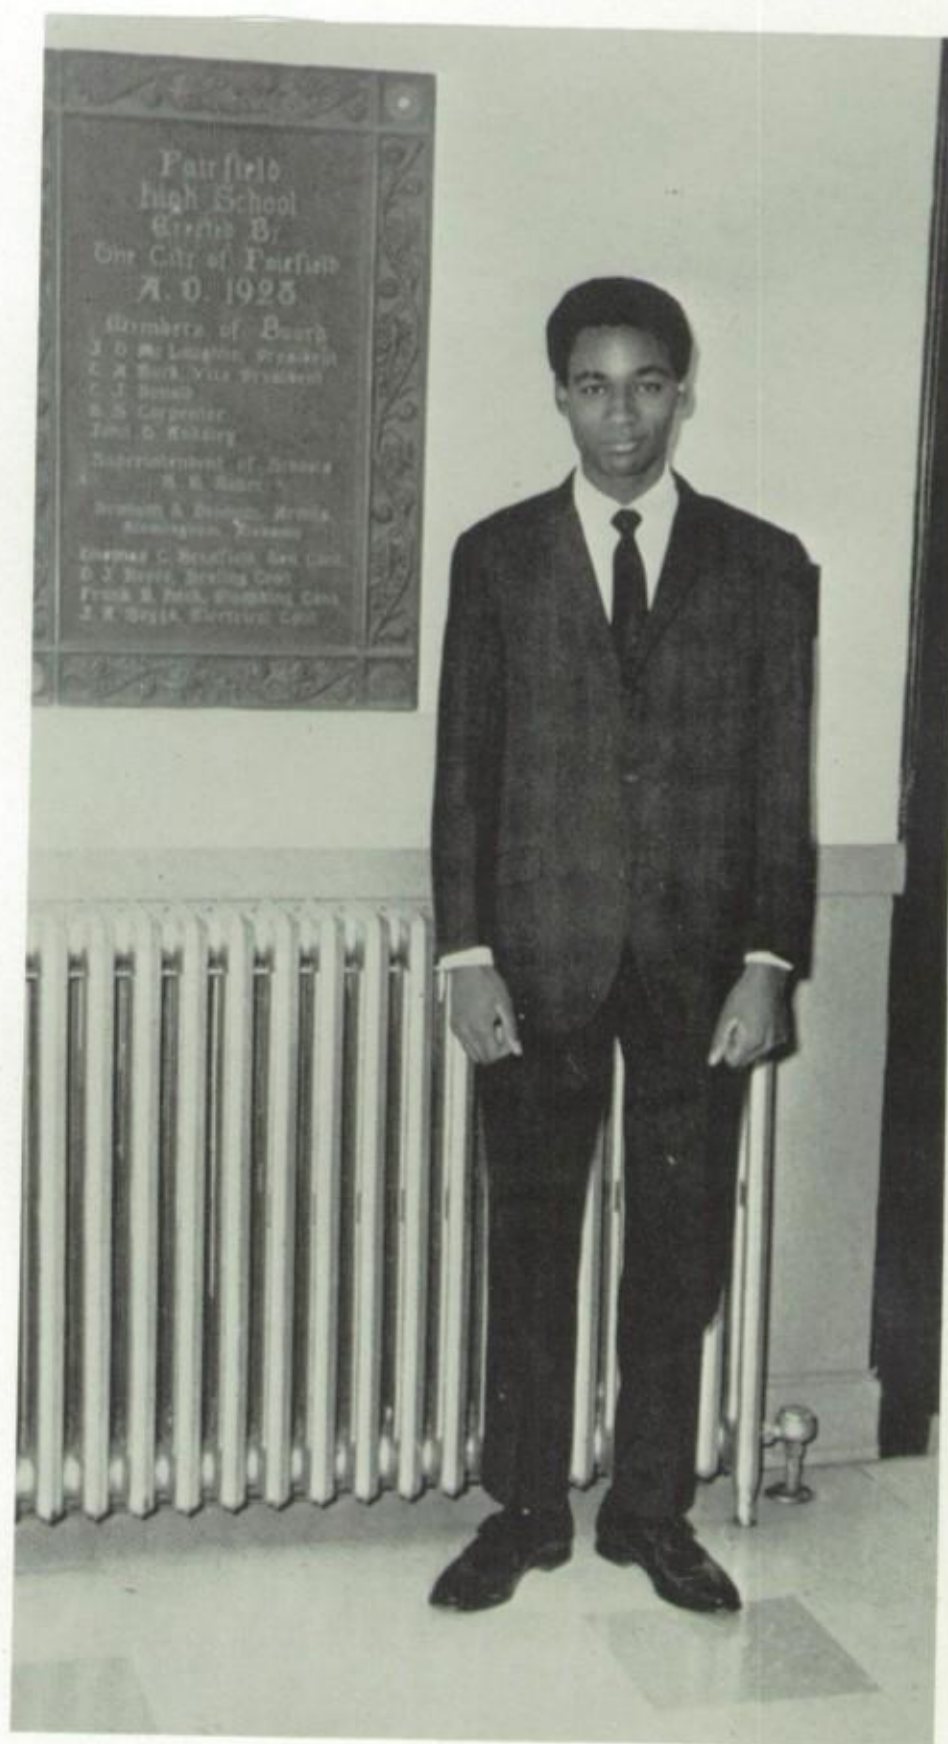

George Wells

George Wells has played a very active role academically as well as athletically at FHS. Having lettered in football, wrestling, and track, George also finds time to play the role of President of the Student Body, and maintain an A average. George has received many honors, including the Quarterback Club's Award for the Highest Scholastic average maintained by a football player and has been chosen January Student of the Month by the Exchange Club. George plans to attend the University of Alabama where he will major in medicine.

Bob White

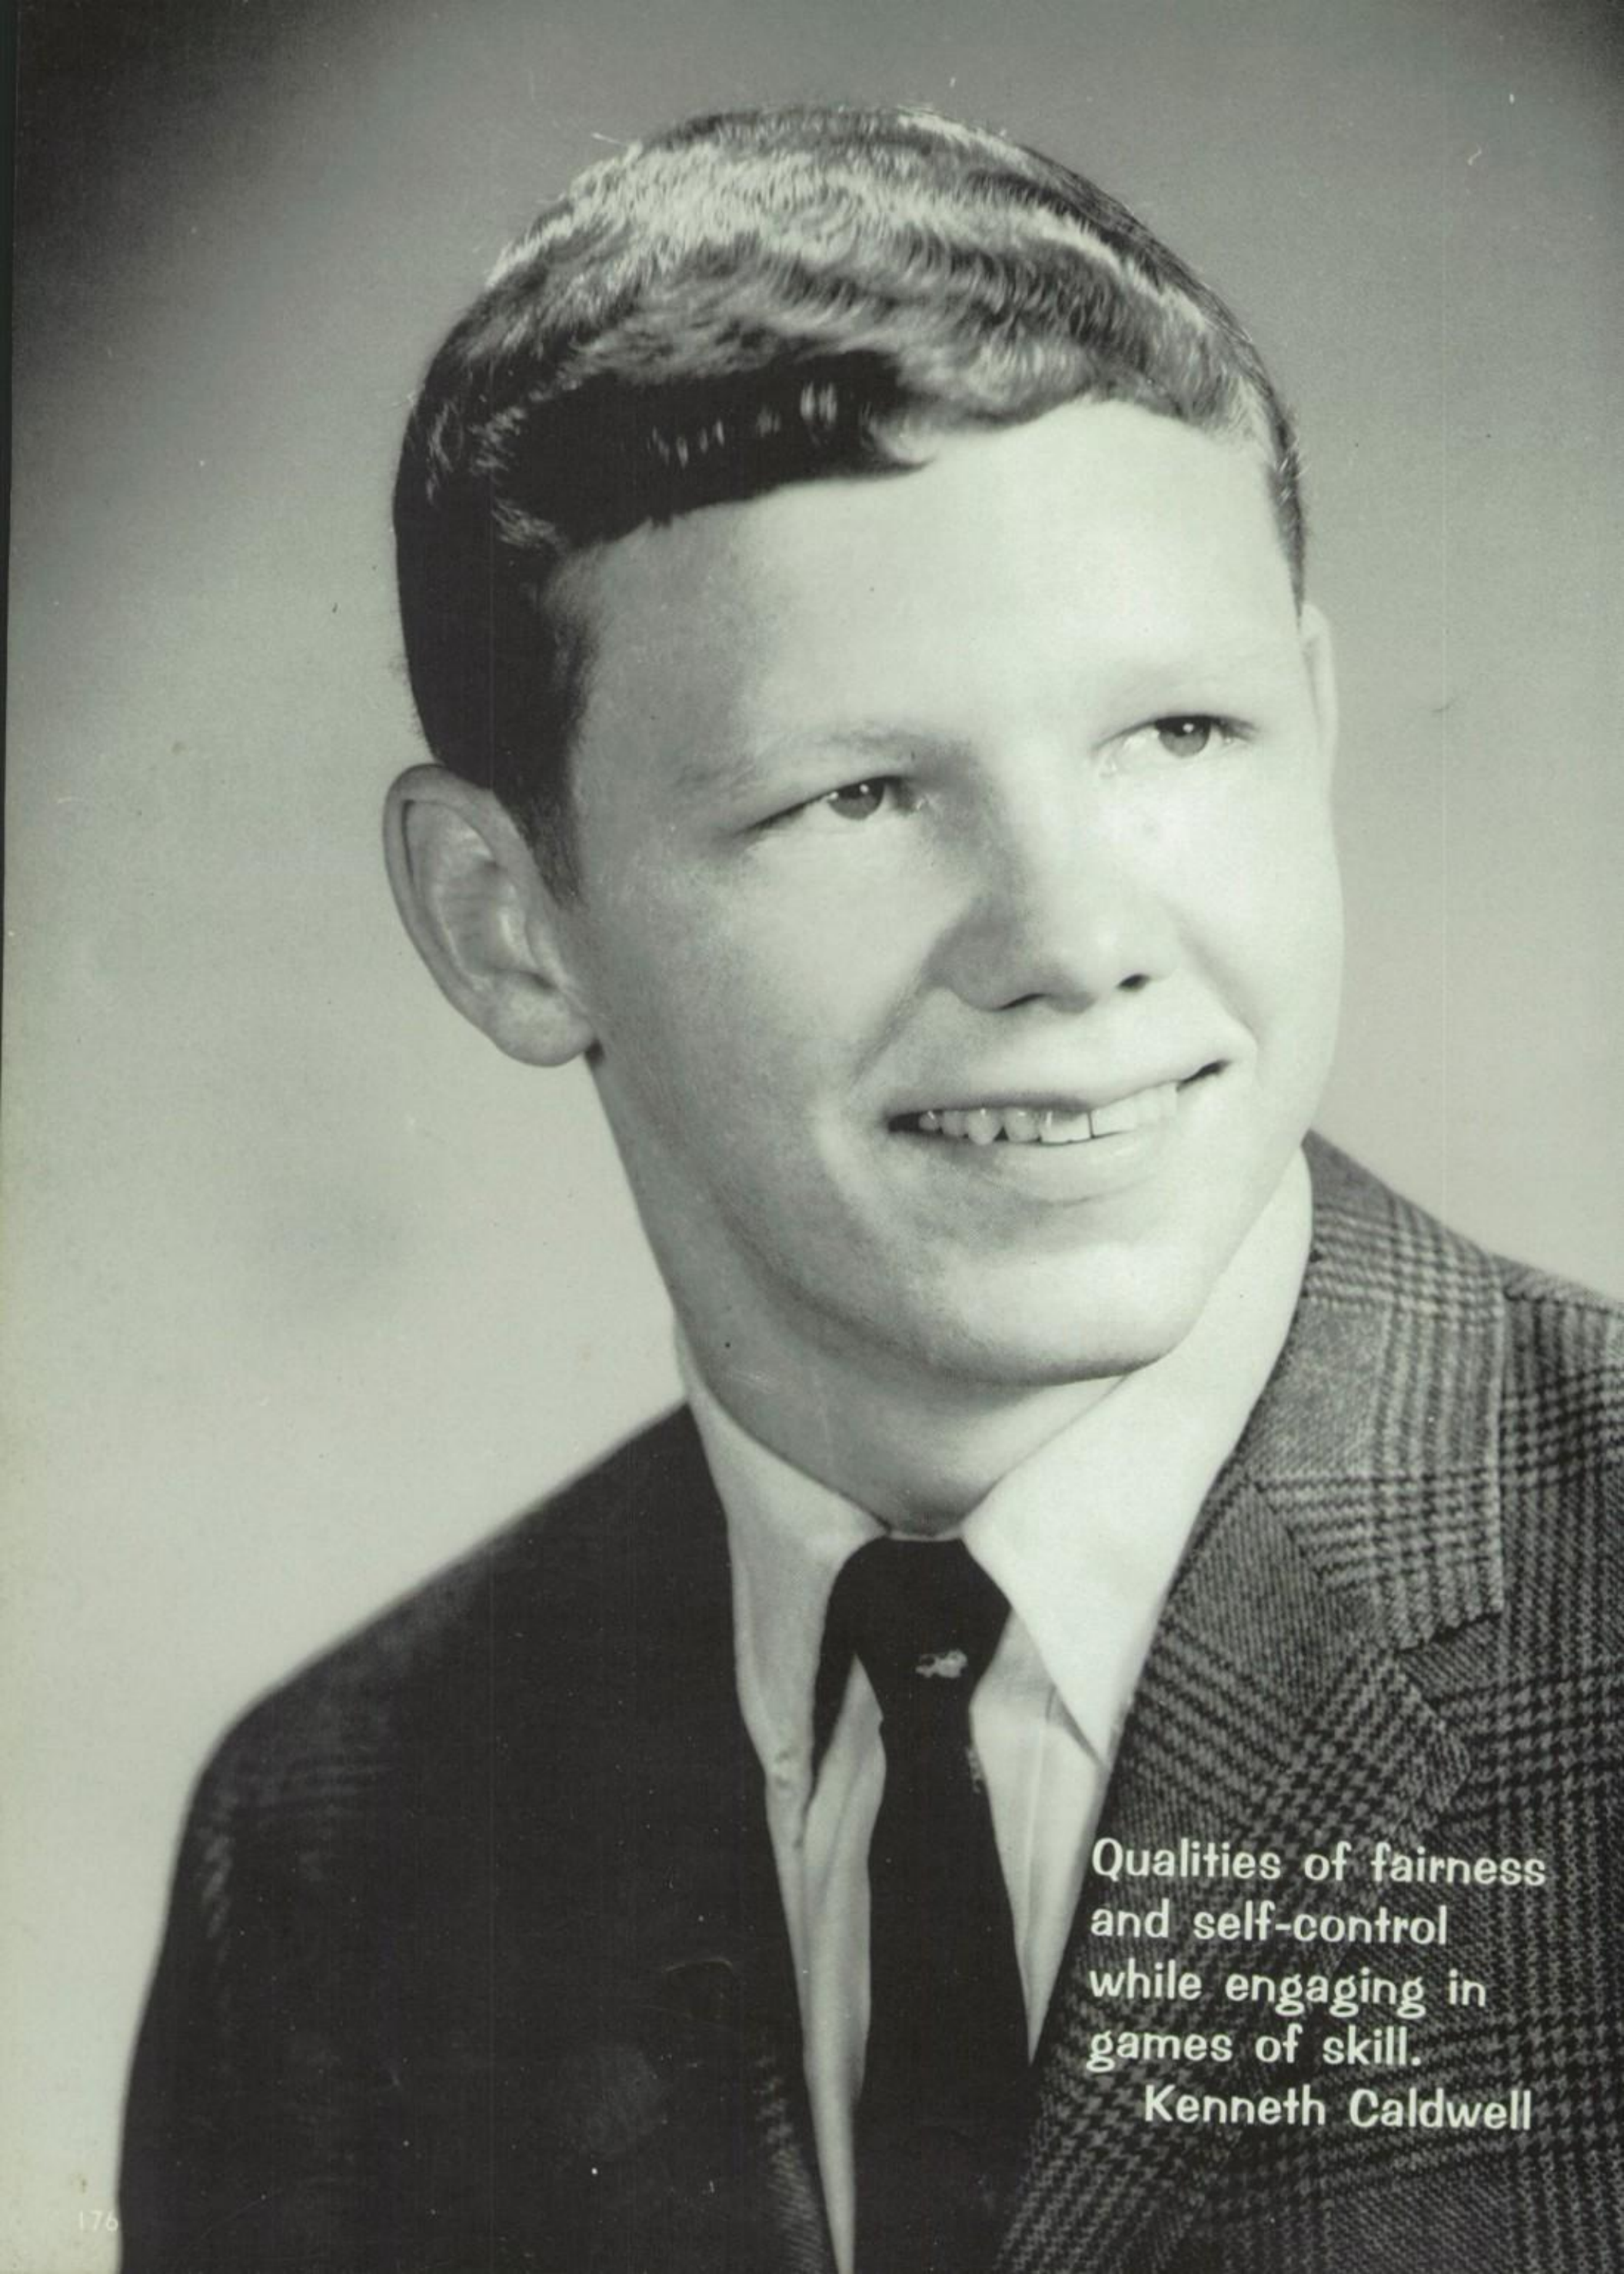

Getting involved in all the school activities possible seemed to be Bob White's policy. He participated in several clubs, holding offices in Key Club, Science Club, and National Beta Club. Bob's artistic skills came to light as he played an active part as stage crew member. Bob's senior year was quite active. Among his other activities he served not only as Editor of the Crucible, but also as photographer. A vice-president of his junior class, he moved up to the position of Senior Class President to top his list of activities.

Schuyler Lawson

A student of superior intellect, Schuyler plans to attend the University of Connecticut next year on a scholarship won in a competitive Merit Scholarship affiliated examination. For the past two summers, Schuyler has been selected to attend special subsidized classes at the University of Arkansas dealing with physics, radiation, and biology. With the selection based on scholarship, Schuyler will again be eligible to receive this honor. Schuyler's studious habits have merited respect from all his classmates and a well deserved membership in Beta Club.

Sammy,
Mafia is great; All the ones I know in Mafia are great people. One day when you are a policeman you will get to throw some of your Mafia friend in jail (not really). Give all your friends a break when you start giving out tickets. (Where your Senior Ring?) You are a great guy and I know you will be a great cop. Don't forget all the fun we have had together in high school;
Junior English, Senior History, and Junior
History. Keep up the — Raising.
Your Friend and Mine,
David

Sammy

This is it Sam, the end of our Senior year, and it's been great. Your friendship has meant a great deal to me and it always will. Remember all the great times we had together last year, summer, and this year. Best of luck to a really great guy.

Dana

P.S. Don't beat up too many rioters when you become a cop.

Sam

you are the king of hell raiser. Don't forget History or D.E. We like to drive Bembo out of his mind. Good luck in the future

ROBERT THOMAS

Sammy,

You're a great guy and a good friend. We have had a lot of fun in English this year. I ~~also~~ wish you a lot of luck.

Roger

Daddy,

You're a very tuff and great boy. I'm glad we've gotten to be such good friends this year and I wouldn't take anything or trade anything for our friendship. At first, Anthony wasn't too so very good of us being friends but now he seems to have accepted the fact and is living with it pretty well now. You're been so nice to me this year and I just want to thank you. It's just not going to be the same next year without you to talk to every morning. I'm really gonna miss you. But, one day, I'll be graduating too, I hope. Unless I wise up and drop-out like one of mine and your friends (Anthony). I'll never forget all of our little talks and me saying so many times, "I'm gonna start dating other people" but it just never seemed to work - did it? Well, I'm kind of glad it didn't now, and I hope it never does. But, you know, if it hadn't been for Anthony, I'd probably never have met you. I'll never forget the first day you came to school ~~to~~ with no senior ring. Boy, were you happy! You walked in and showed me and I'd think you were on "Cloud 9"! Really, that's how happy you seemed. I've never seen anybody so happy in all my life. I hope Vickie was just as happy as you cause if she was I know ya'll will last forever and ever!! But then, the day ya'll broke up you talked and acted like your whole world had fallen in. I just felt so sorry for you. I just felt like Vickie was so ugly to you. Well, she had better hold on to what she has, cause she has a ^{great} boy and she couldn't possibly ask for anybody better looking or better acting. ~~boy~~. And, I mean it too!! Really I do! Remember the first day I'd ever seen you and I was at the water fountain and you said, "Hey Good Looking." I still say you need glasses. I'll never forget that and I don't think Anthony will let me forget it either. I hope that after you graduate I'll still

Sammy.

To one of my best friend at Fairfield. Sammy we had been know one of other for along time. We have raise alot of hell together. The Mafia will always be in me. That is some thing Teresa ~~came~~ not get out of me. you are, have fern Sam best of Luck in the future. Raise Hell with the Mafia for me. O.K.

^{best}
Your friend
Bake Brother.

Sammy,

Although we havent raised much in economics this year we've still had a good time. You're a good friend and I hope you stay out of trouble. Watch out for Bay County. I hope you have the best of luck throughout life. Just stay as you are, have fern and raise HELL.

Best Wishes
your friend
Mike.

See you and we'll still be friends. I know I won't see you as much as I do now but I know I'll see you on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays at Shoney's. Sammy, you'll never know how much your friendship meant to me and I hope it continues to grow & grow. I'll never forget the Saturday night at the party at that "Crusades of Columbus" place. What a night. Well I guess I better close cause when Vickie reads this she's gonna raise a little hell - ain't she. But, please explain to her so she won't hate me or be mad at me. Good Luck in the future and I hope you and Vickie last forever. Me and Anthony too. Well, I love you, and Anthony.
